

Emeraldicious

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition command	when you tell someone to do something in a strong and clear way emerald	when you see a bright green color, like the color of a shiny gem or deep green leaves groan	when you make a low sound to show you are unhappy, in pain, or annoyed imitate	when you copy the way someone talks, moves, or acts recycle	when you turn old things like paper or plastic into something new instead of throwing them away stroll	when you walk in a slow, relaxed way transform	when you change something or someone in a big way wove	when you put pieces together by twisting or crossing them, like making a basket or fabric