

Jingle Dancer

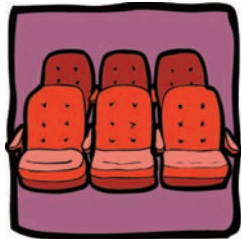

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD

blur: to become hard to see row: a line of something borrow: to use something that belongs to someone else for a while strolled: walked

burrowing: digging daydream: to imagine or dream about something while you're awake fetches: got duplex: a kind of apartment or house with two places side by side law firm: place where lawyers work clasping: holding

