

Fill-in-the-Story

A friend will ask you the parts of speech in parentheses and fill them in with your answers. When it is finished, read the silly story to your friends and family!

Snoopy: Astronaut-Comedian

Yesterday, Snoopy wanted to be an astronaut.

_____, Snoopy decided that he wanted to be a (day of the week)

comedian. He invited his pal _____ to listen to (name)

Snoopy tell some of his jokes. _____ does not (name from above)

laugh at anything. Snoopy thought if he could make _____ laugh, then he would be the (name from above)

most _____ comedian there ever was! Snoopy (adjective)

told _____ jokes, but _____ sat there serious (number) (name from above)

as a(n) _____. Snoopy had one joke left to tell.
(animal)

He took a(n) _____ breath, "What do you call a (adjective)

tired rocketship?...

Exhausted!”

_____, _____ _____ into (adverb ending in -ly) (name from above) (past tense verb)

_____ laughter that startled Snoopy, and he (adjective)

began to laugh too! Snoopy thought to himself:

“Maybe, I could be the first dog comedian to go to space!”